THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF A COLLECTIVE EFFORT.

AMIR KHAN, Chairman of the Board.

“The creation of the Pakistan Professional Boxing Body is an important step towards building a stronger, more organised and more accountable future for boxing in Pakistan.

Our ambition is to create clear pathways for boxers, coaches, officials and promoters; to raise standards of safety and professionalism; and to ensure that talent from every part of our country has the opportunity to be recognised and supported.

This is the beginning of a collective effort. Working together with our boxers, clubs, trainers, officials and partners, we can help Pakistan’s boxing grow with integrity, opportunity and pride.”

TOGETHER, WE CAN TAKE PAKISTAN'S PROFESSIONAL BOXING FORWARD WITH AMBITION, UNITY, AND DETERMINATION.

SHAJAAD KHAN, President of the Board

"The establishment of the Pakistan Professional Boxing Body represents an exciting new chapter for professional boxing in Pakistan.

Our vision is to build a respected and professionally managed boxing structure that creates opportunities for our boxers, strengthens our domestic boxing environment and helps showcase Pakistan's talent on a wider international stage.

We want to encourage greater participation, support the development of professional boxers and establish an environment where dedication, discipline and sporting excellence can flourish. This organisation is about creating opportunities and building a lasting foundation for the future.

Together, we can take Pakistan's professional boxing forward with ambition, unity and determination."

WE RECOGNISE THAT A STRONG SPORTING ORGANISATION REQUIRES MORE THAN AMBITION.

TAHIR KHAN, CEO

"The success of the Pakistan Professional Boxing Body will be built on strong organisation, clear governance and a shared commitment to raising standards across professional boxing.

Our priority is to establish effective administrative structures, develop transparent processes and support the departments responsible for licensing, registration, boxers welfare, officiating, finance and compliance.

We recognise that a strong sporting organisation requires more than ambition. It requires professionalism, accountability, consistency and teamwork at every level. boxing community

As General Secretary, I look forward to working alongside our leadership, departments, and the boxing community to build an organisation that serves the interests of Pakistan's boxing and creates a positive legacy for future generations."
